

News Release

Blake Konczal
Executive Director

For Immediate Release
Date: April 18, 2019

Contact: Janis B. Parker
(559) 490-7160(o) or (559) 908-1441(c)
jparker@workforce-connection.com

GOVAGANZA! Career Fair

Informing and Connecting Jobseekers with Employment & Training Opportunities

FRESNO, CA – Calling All Jobseekers who are ready to take control of their careers to attend the GOVAGANZA! Career Fair.

Workforce Connection in partnership with City, County, State, Federal and Educational Institutions will connect individuals to employment opportunities in demand occupations and available no-cost training programs.

What: GOVAGANZA! Career Fair

When: Thursday, April 25, 2019 – 10am to 3pm

Where: Chukchansi Park
1800 Tulare Street – Fresno

Sign-up: @eventbrite.com

Jobseekers can speak with representatives from various government agencies and educational institutions to learn about current open positions, qualifications required and specific hiring opportunities. Come dressed for success with resumes in hand and prepared for possible on-site interview opportunities.

Also, Workforce Connection representatives will be available to share how jobseekers can qualify for no-cost training services that will prepare them for employment in high-growth industries and in-demand occupations that employers are hiring for right now!

Executive Director Blake Konczal stated, “This partnership is all about bridging the gaps between jobseeker advancement and business success. It’s a win-win for the community.”

A proud partner of America's Job Center of CaliforniaSM network.

###